So much in answer to the question as to the life of Jesus historically conceived. A number of other questions now follow. What significance has the preaching of Jesus for us, for our convictions, and for our faith and our endeavor after piety. What significance has his person to the validity of his preaching For it is already evident that for such an announcement as his, its claim for truth and absolute validity, the person of the announcer has much more significance than that of Euclid for the validity of his geometry. Further, there is the general question: Are the great phenomena and contents of the history to be conceived as a revelation, announcing the way to know and to realize the eternal meaning and purpose of present day life And suggested by this general question is the special one: Are we to regard the history of religion and especially the Israelitish religion and the phenomenon of Jesus as a revelation And many like questions offer themselves. Opportunity may perhaps present itself to return to these questions. But it was necessary first of all to consider the more fundamental one. To repeat it once more: this was the chief aim, the aim that justifies these lectures. Die Schriften des Neuen Testaments neu uebersetzt und fuer die Gegenwart erklart von Professoren DD. O.
