Through these any reader can detect many elements of the renaissance states and study a general history of the 15th and the 16th centuries. More specifically, the first text is named Spain v. the Ottomans (16th c.). This is the story of the Spanish attack against the Turks during 1532. The Spanish Emperor Charles V wanted to protect his colonies in North Africa which were invaded and destroyed by the Muslim Emirs, assisted by the Ottoman Turks. So he launched an attack against the Turkish city-port of Coron (South West cape of Peloponnese, Greece). He captured the city and held it for almost two years. It follows the one called Spain v. France (16th c.) which discusses the rivalry between...
