Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Ninth Occupation, Peas and Cork Work, in Primary Schools: A Practical Manual Especially for Primary-Kindergarten Teachers This work constitutes one of a series now issued or soon to be published upon the use of kindergarten material in primary schools. The purpose of the author and publisher is to aid in bringing about the best possible kindergarten training in primary schools. While the use of this material has rapidly increased within the last few years, thus far there has been an almost total absence of literature along this line. While the regular kindergartens are doing most worthy work, yet their operations are limited to the comparative few. Probably 95 percent of the children of America will receive their first training outside the home in primary schools, and while the establishment of regular kindergartens everywhere is always to be encouraged, in the meantime let us labor to make the best possible and only available substitute - the primary school - a place where at least some of the advantages of kindergarten training can be secured. The teacher will understand that the primary purpose of all the kindergarten gifts and occupations is the development of the physical, mental and moral faculties of the child, and not the construction of objects, etc. While it is probably true, that no child can construct a form new to him without developing his capacity for construction, yet a much greater development will result if the lessons are properly conducted. In order to secure the best development, the child should be helped by hints and suggestions, rather than by direct instruction. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare...
