The stately homes of England How beautiful they stand, Amidst their tall ancestral trees, Oer all the pleasant land! The deer across their greensward bound Through shade and sunny gleam, And the swan glides past them with the sound Of some rejoicing stream. The merry homes of England Around their hearths by night, What gladsome looks of household love Meet in the ruddy light! There womens voice flows forth in song Or childhoods tale is told Or lips move tunefully along Some glorious page of old. The blessed homes of England, How softly on their bowers, Is laid the holy quietness That breathes from Sabbath hours Solemn, yet sweet, the church bells chime Floats through their woods at morn, All other sounds at that still time Of breeze and leaf are born. Miss Vivyan was the daughter of an officer of high rank in the navy of Queen Elizabeth, who lost his life in the royal service while his little girl Anna was still very young. His valor had gained for him many medals and yet more substantial...
