Excerpt: . . . 11 Ensure the inclusion of all veteran-owned and service disabled veteran-owned firms in a comprehensive and current database to facilitate actions consistent with the spirit and intent of the law. The Corporation should identify prime contractors who are seeking to do business with veteran-owned firms, and a listing of these prime contractors should be made available to all veteran-owned business. Also, bring veteran-owned firms together with prime contractors and government procurement officials so these groups can discuss potential contracting opportunities. Make an assessment of the policies and procedures now in place at Federal Government agencies and ensure there is an active pro-motion of the 3 percent subcontracting procurement goal. Subsequent to contract award, assess and monitor the subcon-tracting progress or lack thereof made by Federal Government agencies and their prime contractors. Those prime contractors that fail to make their goals should be precluded from participating in further Federal Government procurements until such time as they have rectified their deficiencies. The SBA Corporation Advisory Committee and the Department of Veterans Affairs need to work closely with one another to ensure they are all working for the same goals under agreed-upon proce-dures and that turf battles do not take place at the expense of the American military veterans. Also, illegitimate, unofficial, for-profit organizations that promote so-called veterans rights need to be identified and our veterans made aware of and warned of their existence. Finally, and most importantly to me, sir, the Federal Acquisition Regulations, FAR,...
