

Through the Eyes of a Mother: New and Improved Version

By Jo Jo Blackburn

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Large Print. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .18 year old Reene s state of mind took her to a fantasy world. Her subconscious took her the the psychiatric ward of the hospital. This true story will bring understanding and hope to any parent who has a child with special needs. It is wrote from the mothers perspective. It is a kind honest account of a mother trying to cut through the confidentiality red tape to help her daughter have a life. FROM INSIDE THE BOOK I cried uncontrollably all the way to work. My world had crumbled and I couldn t put the pieces back together. I realized I had no control over any thing that was happening. I didn t think I could handle anymore. Recent Review I purchased this book looking for help, inspiration, understanding, guidance, and even confirmation of my own reactions to individuals with bipolar disorders. As a mother experiencing a quite similar situation, I was inspired to read that I am not alone. Not even with just experiencing the disease, but also the trials of trying to obtain...
