By Mark Delap

America Star Books, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 276 x 212 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Little Acorn is a story for those who are young and who are young at heart. It teaches us about persistence in the face of life's obstacles. One day, a little acorn, just minding his own business, hears the still small voice of God in his heart of hearts. There is a great work to do, and God has chosen a small acorn, just minding his own business, to do it. In the midst of many limitations and obstacles, God is there every step of the way, reminding him to keep growing and keep believing. With God, all things become possible for The Little Acorn. When this life seems disappointing, overwhelming and full of impossibilities - this book teaches us to come back to the simple to obtain our promises.
